

GOLDEN HEART ART AUCTION

Support One of the Most Innovative Nonprofits in Fairbanks

BE AN ART HERO

Noble Paws is a Mushing School for people with disabilities. We have 26 sled dogs, four adaptive sleds and a half dozen volunteers. We are entering our third year of teaching people to race their own dog team. Yes, A dog mushing race team for disabled mushers!

We are a 100% volunteer organization and all funds we raise go directly to our programs. All donations are tax deductible and would greatly help us have a successful 2016-17 season. Our goal is to raise $5,000.

AUCTION DETAILS

It is easy to participate in the auction, just send the following:

- Business or studio name
- Your website (if you have one)
- Hi-resolution photo(s) of art
- Brief description of work
- Suggested retail value of art
- Estimated shipping cost*

Send to: steve@noblepaws.org

Deadline for submission: November 14th

Auction dates: November 18th-28th

* The auction will be online and buyers can be from all over the US. Shipping will be the responsibility of the artist.

ONLINE RESOURCES

You can submit your art auction info online at:
NoblePaws.org/auction

Check out our awesome one-minute video:
NoblePaws.org

WHAT TYPE OF ART?

We will promote the auction as an “Alaskan Artist” art auction. Alaska offers a variety of styles and mediums of art and we would like to showcase this diversity. It could be a painting, sculpture, tile work, jewelry, felt work, etc.

WE WANT TO THANK YOU

You will receive a thank you letter (usable for tax purposes) from our director, you will be featured on our Facebook page (1350 followers) and our website, and you will have the sincerest gratitude of all our participants, volunteers and sled dogs.

GOT QUESTIONS?

Thanks so much for your consideration! If you have any questions contact:

Steve Vick, Noble Paws – President, steve@noblepaws.org, 907-314-0721